Above All

Above all powers, above all kings
Above all nature and all created things;
Above all wisdom and all the ways of man,
You were here before the world began.

Above all kingdoms, above all thrones,
Above all wonders the world has ever known;
Above all wealth and treasures of the earth,
There's no way to measure what you're worth.

Crucified, laid behind the stone;
You lived to die, Rejected and alone;
Like a rose trampled on the ground,
You took the fall, and thought of me,
You're above all.

Above all powers, above all kings
Above all nature and all created things;
Above all wisdom and all the ways of man,
You were here before the world began.

Above all kingdoms, above all thrones,
Above all wonders the world has ever known;
Above all wealth and treasures of the earth,
There's no way to measure what you're worth.

Crucified, laid behind the stone;
You lived to die, Rejected and alone;
Like a rose trampled on the ground,
You took the fall, and thought of me,
You're above all.

Crucified, laid behind the stone;
You lived to die, Rejected and alone;
Like a rose trampled on the ground,
You took the fall, and thought of me,
You're above all.

Like a rose trampled on the ground,
You took the fall, and thought of me,
You're above all.

The Wonderful Cross

When I survey the wondrous cross
On which the Prince of Glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss,
And pour contempt on all my pride.

See from His head, His hands, His feet,
Sorrow and love flow mingled down;
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
Or thorns compose so rich a crown?

O the wonderful cross,
O the wonderful cross
Bids me come and die and find
That I may truly live.

O the wonderful cross,
O the wonderful cross;
All who gather here by grace
Draw near and bless Your name.

Were the whole realm of nature mine.
That were an offering far too small.
Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands my soul, my life, my all.

O the wonderful cross,
O the wonderful cross
Bids me come and die and find
That I may truly live.

O the wonderful cross,
O the wonderful cross;

Faith of Our Fathers

Faith of our fathers, living still
In spite of dungeon, fire and sword!
O how our hearts beat high with joy
Whene'er we hear that glorious word!
Faith of our fathers! holy faith!
We will be true to Thee till death!

Our fathers, chained in prisons dark,
Were still in heart and conscience free.
How sweet would be their children's fate
If they, like them, could die for thee!
Faith of our fathers! holy faith!
We will be true to Thee till death!

Faith of our fathers! We will strive
To win all nations unto thee,
And thro' the truth that comes from God
Mankind shall then be truly free.
Faith of our fathers! holy faith!
We will be true to thee till death!

Faith of our fathers we will love
Both friend and foe in all our strife;
And preach Thee, too, as love knows how,
By kindly words and virtuous life.
Faith of our fathers! holy faith!
We will be true to thee till death!

I Know Who Holds Tomorrow

I don't know about tomorrow;
I just live from day to day.
I don't borrow from its sunshine,
For its skies may turn to gray.
I don't worry o'er the future,
For I know what Jesus said;
And today I'll walk beside Him,
For He knows what is ahead.

Many things about tomorrow
I don't seem to understand;
But I know who holds tomorrow,
And I know who holds my hand.

Ev'ry step is getting brighter
As the golden stairs I climb;
Ev'ry burden's getting lighter;
Ev'ry cloud is silver-lined.
There the sun is always shining;
There no tear will dim the eye
At the ending of the rainbow,
Where the mountains touch the sky.

Many things about tomorrow
I don't seem to understand;
But I know who holds tomorrow,
And I know who holds my hand.

I don't know about tomorrow
It may bring me poverty;
But the One who feeds the sparrow
Is the One who stands by me.
And the path that is my portion,
May be through the flame or flood;
But His presence goes before me,
And I'm covered with His blood.

Many things about tomorrow
I don't seem to understand;
But I know who holds tomorrow,
And I know who holds my hand.
